So many wonderful things to say... First, a thanks for your charm & hospitality - it was a delight to visit with you both. Next is the attention to detail - the bed! The linens! The towels! All so comfortable and inviting. It's a wonder, really, that we ever left the comfort of the fire in the drawing room to explore central Scotland at all! Finally, the food! David is an outstanding chef and sent us packing with full bellies and full hearts each morning. Your home really is like living in a dream and we are so grateful to have had the chance to experience it. Thank you so very much!
